

January 2015

To Whom It May Concern,

I have worked as an actor in film and television throughout the world for over twenty years and it has been my good fortune to have experience of the outstanding professionalism of Ian Van Temperley.

Ian has given me advice and guidance on various forms of stunt work; weapons, fighting and working with horses. The breadth of his knowledge and skills is truly admirable. Myself and other actors always felt that we were in the best of hands.

What makes Ian stand out is his approach to the work. He has what people describe as " a great way " with actors and an exceptionally keen eye for the details involved in stunt work. This can mean spotting an actor's anxiety or anticipating factors that nobody else would pick up on. Consequently, the cast and other crew are supported, the scene is supported and the entire project is supported with safety and professionalism.

I recommend him wholeheartedly.

Yours sincerely

Gary Lewis
